

HARE BARBECUE NEXT FOR TAFT

President to Be Guest Wednesday of Governor Mann of Virginia.

President Taft will be given a dinner at Richmond, Va., next Wednesday, the memory of which he is likely to carry with him as long as he lives.

It is going to be something brand new for the President. "Possum, it is said, is not to be compared with this dish. It is to be an old-fashioned Virginia hare barbecue, fixed up after the manner that sportsmen know. Governor Mann will entertain the President, and the old colored aunt, who has long presided over his kitchen, will prepare the fine, fat hares for the Chief Executive.

Governor Mann declares that he has the finest cook in the South, and he is prepared to prove it to the satisfaction of Mr. Taft; also to show the President that Virginia hare, barbecued, is the best thing to eat.

Tennesseans Now Purpose to Send Hooper to Senate.

BRISTOL, Tenn., Nov. 20.—Governor-elect Ben W. Hooper, of Tennessee, after his return last night from Nashville, held a conference with some twenty east Tennessee members-elect of the Legislature. It was stated on good authority that the "regulars" or Taylor-Patterson Democrats have on foot a plan for regaining the State which they have lost by Hooper's election, by the elevation of the latter to the United States Senate, when the Legislature meets in January and thus creating a vacancy in the governorship.

The "regulars" control the senate and the speaker they elect will become governor and they will be again in power in Tennessee.

The plan contemplates Hooper as the successor of Senator J. B. Frazier and if carried out may mean that ex-Governor John I. Cox, of this city, will again be governor of the State through the senatorial speakership route.
